

THE PRIVATE OPENING OF NOBODY IS A STRANGER CURATED BY ARMELLE LETURCQ

By Ariane MINARD

On the 23 of May, Armelle Leturcq was pleased to present her exhibition »Nobody is a stranger « at No Name in Paris. Numerous artists – such as Jacqueline De Jong, Stephanie Brossard, Adel Abdessemed, Christodoulos Panayiotou, Frank Perrin, Tarik Kiswanson and many others – could expose their art work.

This very special event was an opportunity for guests to come together over a glass of champagne and conversations centered on art and its universal language.

The artists :

Adel Abdessemed, Alejandra Laviada, Bojan Sarcevic, Brognon-Rollin, Christodoulos Panayiotou, Frank Perrin, Gianni Motti, Gisèle Vienne, Ivan Argote, Jacqueline De Jong, Jean-Luc Blanc, Jean-Luc Verna, Jimmie Durham, Michel Blazy, Michel Journiac, Stéphanie Brossard, Myriam Mihindou, Nil Yalter, Oxana Shachko, Sofia Salazar Rosales, Sturtevant, Tarik Kiswanson

No Name « Nobody is a stranger » until the 17th of July.

By appointment : leo@marshallfineart.com

From left to right : FRANK PERRIN, Paix, 2024 ; IVAN ARGOTE, Skin : We Are Here, 2021 ; ALEJANDRA LAVIADA, Dance, 2023

From left to right : BROGNON ROLLIN, I Lost my Page Again (36);(32);(35) ; JEAN-LUC BLANC, Hedy, 2022

MYRIAM MIHINDOU, Fleurs de Peau, 1999-present

From left to right : JIMMIE DURHAM, Untitled (12) ; (10) ; (04), 2007

GIANNI MOTTI performing

From left to right : BROGNON ROLLIN, My Heart Stood Still (Carlos), 2016 ; BOJAN SARCEVIC, Vertèbre, 2020

From left to right : JIMMIE DURHAM, This note should explain everything, 1996 ; GIANNI MOTTI, Io, 2024